

Events for the week of Oct. 28 – Nov. 3, 2013

Make your reservations today for the French Dinner with Wine pairings on Nov. 2. Reservations needed by Wednesday, Oct. 30.

Monday, Oct. 28

Phillip Hester, "Comic Book Art: Writing with Pictures & Drawing with Words" Exhibit, Mills Gallery

Tuesday, Oct. 29

Reconciliation with Intersections International Residency: Welcome the Stranger

Intersections is dedicated to building respectful relationships among diverse individuals and communities to forge common ground and develop strategies that promote justice, reconciliation, and peace. We are a multi-cultural, multi-faith, global initiative of the Collegiate Church of New York, the oldest corporation in North America dating back to 1628.

11:00 am The Sacred Space, Chapel

7:00 pm, Veteran-Civilian Dialogue, Graham Annex, Sutphen
Common Room

"What this forum provides is an open opportunity not for therapy, and not for politics, but an environment for people who are interested to sit down with veterans and address some of the questions or concerns they may have," said Chris Chartier, director of the Jasper County Office of Veterans Affairs, in anticipation of this event. "By opening a dialogue where neither party is the focus, everyone's attention can be focused on understanding differences, and hopefully creating a better community for all of our returning veterans."

Wednesday, Oct. 30

4:00 pm, Informal Open Dialogue, Maytag Student Center Atrium

An opportunity to engage with individual members of Intersections International about any topic or interest area. No appointments necessary—just stop by!

Thursday, Oct. 31

11:00 am, Convocation: "Welcome the Stranger," Douwstra Auditorium
